

Minutes of the Student Government Association September 1, 1998

- Call to Order: Vice President Chad Lewis called the regular meeting of the Student Government Association to Order at 5:05 p.m. in the Congressional Chambers of Downing University Center.
- Roll Call: No formal roll was called.
- Minutes: It was moved and seconded to suspend with the reading of the minutes. Motion approved.
- Guest Speaker: Student Government Association advisor Scott Talyor spoke to congress in regards to the year before us. He commented on Stephanie's hard work over the summer and the many hours that she has already worked. Scott stressed the importance of each congress member setting a goal that they would like to get accomplished and working toward implementing that goal.
- Officer Reports:
President, Stephanie Cosby – Stephanie began with thanking everyone for attending and showing an interest in being involved. President Stephanie discussed the issue of University Blvd. and the three incidents of students getting hit so far this year. She stated that President Ransdell's proposed one-way loop around campus is still being looked into, but has ran into some opposition by some of the residents living along Normal Street. President Stephanie next discussed the student seating proposal and that the university is still divided over which section of seats students will receive. She did stress that increased student attendance at the games is a must no matter what proposal is worked out. Stephanie announced that on September 2nd there will be a Big Red Bash from 3-7pm. on DUC south lawn with a pep rally at 7:00pm. Stephanie closed her report by announcing that because of some difficulties there will be no pig roast for the first football game on Thursday Sept. 3rd.
Executive Vice President, Chad Lewis – Chad began his report by introducing himself and thanking everyone for the great attendance at the first meeting. Vice President Lewis announced that the fall congressional retreat will be on September 11th and 12th at Eagle Ridge Camp in Warren Co. We will depart at 3:00pm. on Friday and return at approximately twelve noon on Saturday. He stressed that the retreat is a great time for new members to learn how to right legislation and to begin their committee work. Chad closed by again thanking everyone for attending.
Vice President of Finance, Carleton Ruminer – Carleton presented to Congress a detailed report of the budget and how it differed from last years budget. He announced that expenditures so far for the year total $210 dollars, leaving the balance at $41,783.00.
Vice President of Public Relations, Brad Sweatt – Brad Sweatt began his report by introducing himself and welcoming everyone back to a new school year. Brad announced SGA's new webpage and thanked Jeff Baynham for designing it. Brad also thanked everyone who helped work the Welcome Back Western tent. Brad handed out PR awards to those that helped the table. Brad asked everyone to come out to Big Red Bash on Sept. 2nd. He announced the people that would be in the dunking booth of which included President Ransdell. Brad asked everyone to remember the football game against UT-Martin on Thursday, he stressed that everyone needs to come out and support the football team and Big Red. Brad closed his report by reading the theme for this year's Congress: "Coming together is a beginning, Keeping together is progress, and Working together is success."

Vice President of Administration, Matt Bastin – Matt introduced himself and thanked everyone for attending the meeting. Matt announced that if everyone was in attendance tonight the only open positions will be senior, graduate, and non-traditional. Matt went over the requirements to be a congress member. He finally went over all of the information that members picked up when they entered the chambers.

Committee Reports: Academic Affairs – Larry Murphy, the 1998-1998 chairperson, announced that his committee will meet on Mondays at 6:00pm. Larry reviewed what Academic Affairs is responsible for according to the Constitution and Bylaws..

Student Affairs – Tim Hatton, the 1998-1999 chairperson, announced that his committee will meet on Thursdays at 4:00pm. Tim gave a brief definition of what Student Affairs does and asked everyone to come out to his committee meeting

Legislative Research – Dwight Campbell, the 1998-1999 chairperson, announced that his committee will be meeting on Mondays at 4:00pm. Dwight stressed the importance of LRC, in that his committee reviews all legislation before it can be sent to congress. Dwight said that due to the Labor Day holiday his committee will meet for a few minutes at 4:00 on Tuesday.

Campus Improvements – Laura Hancock, the 1998-1999, chairperson, announced that her committee will meet at 5:00pm. on Thursday afternoon. Laura talked about several projects that her committee will work on this coming up semester.

Public Relations, Amanda Cole – Amanda Cole, the 1998-1999 chairperson, announced that her committee will meet at 4:00pm. on Tuesdays. Amanda stressed the importance of PR and that her committee works in close contact with the Vice President of Public Relations Brad Sweatt.

Hillraisers, Sally Eilerman – An excited Sally Eilerman encouraged everyone to come out and join Hillraisers. Sally went into detail about this year's Hillraisers and what goals have been set. Her committee will meet at 6:15pm. on Tuesdays.

Academic Council Reports: Potter College, Justin Clark – No Report
Ogden College, Mandy Coats – No Report
Business College, Open – No Report
Education College, Open – No Report
Graduate, Open – No Report

COA: President Stephanie Cosby announced that the first Council on Organizational Affairs will meet for the first time on Tuesday, September 8th at 3:30pm. in DUC 305. The deadline for organizational aid applications has been set for September 24th.

Unfinished Business: There was no unfinished business from the last meeting held on April 28th 1998.

New Business: Vice President of Administration Matt Bastin read Resolution 98-1-F "Placing of Crosswalk on Normal Drive" for first reading.

President Stephanie Cosby swore in Chief Justice Ryan Morrison.

Chief Justice Ryan Morrison swore in all committee chairs and appointed positions. Then all class and dorm representatives were sworn in by Ryan.

Announcements: Coordinator of Committees Christoph Miller introduced himself to everyone. Christoph also announced that the University Center Board is needing more members, anyone interested in joining was to sign up on a sheet up front. Rick Malek announced that the Young Democrats will meet on Wednesday at 8:30pm. in DUC room 305.

Adjournment: Edmond Schwab moved to adjourn the meeting. Motion was seconded and approved unanimously. Meeting was adjourned at 5:45pm.

Respectfully Submitted,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Matt Bastin", with a stylized flourish at the end.

Matthew D. Bastin
VP of Administration, 1998-1999