

Minutes of the Student Government Association September 29, 1998

Call to Order: Vice President Chad Lewis called the regular meeting of the Student Government Association to order at 5:00pm in the Congressional Chambers of the Downing University Center.

Roll Call: Vice President of Administration Matt Bastin called Roll. Those members absent included: Brent Ditto, Bryan Daniel, Tommy Schandling, Brianne Dockins, Joshua Hampton, Amy Cassell, Leslie Bedo, Kyle Matthews, Tim Gilbert, James Mason, Julie Mitchell, and Heidi Grogg.

Minutes: It was moved and seconded to suspend with the reading of the minutes. Motion approved.

Officer Reports: President, Stephanie Cosby – President Cosby began her report by announcing that “We got more seats!” A press conference will be held tomorrow at 9:30am to announce that the first four rows of sec 108 in Diddle Arena will be transferred to students. Stephanie stressed the importance of student turnout for the basketball games especially if we wish to gain more seats in the future. Stephanie discussed the University Blvd. meeting on Monday night. She was disappointed with the results of the meeting, which she described as horrible. She did thank the eight students that turned out and Mike Witar who spoke at the meeting. President Stephanie next read over the impact of sophomore housing report, and in doing so cleared up a misconception that all sophomores have to live on campus. The policy states that one must live on campus for four semesters. In regards to placing of sprinklers in the dorms, Stephanie is encouraged by the new piece of legislation that recommends the University place them in all dorms. President Cosby said that she is working with the Board of Student Body Presidents on writing a letter to the General Assembly for help in funding the project. Stephanie stressed the need for us to find more Academic Council Representatives. She read over the qualifications and asked for people to see her if they were interested. The President closed her report by encouraging everyone to donate blood tomorrow at the blood drive.

Executive Vice President, Chad Lewis – Chad reported that last week Provide-a-Ride was used forty-six times which is down from the previous week. He encouraged everyone to continue to spread the telephone number around for it. Chad also thanked all of those who helped write the four pieces of legislation that will be up for first reading tonight. He encouraged everyone to keep on writing.

Vice President of Finance, Carleton Ruminer – Carleton announced that there were no expenditures for the week which leaves the account balance at $37,125.34. The Vice President also asked to speak with the committee members of Organizational Aide following the meeting.

Vice President of Public Relations, Brad Sweatt – Brad began by reminding everyone of the Blood Drive tomorrow in West Hall’s Cellar he asked that everyone come out and be a part of it. Brad passed out a sign up sheet for people to help with the booth on the day of voting. The Vice President reminded everyone of the Congress picture following the meeting on the front steps of DUC. Brad closed his report by making a comment on the Herald editorial today. He said not to get frustrated by what others tell you and that a lot of what we do people do not recognize, but it does not make it of any less importance.

Vice President of Administration, Matt Bastin – Matt announced that open positions were: Graduate, Education, and Business College; Gilbert Hall, and nineteen at-large seats. He also reminded those who did not have the opportunity to pick up their notebook last week that they could pick them up today. Matt passed around an email sign up sheet for members to sign. The Vice President thanked those that attended the University Blvd. meeting last night. He especially thanked Brandon Griffey for staying for the entire two and half hour meeting. Matt passed around a sign up sheet for the tailgating tent on Saturday. He closed his report by reminding all the committee chairs to turn in their committee report to him.

Committee Reports: Academic Affairs – Larry announced that his committee is working on many projects and he complemented them on all of their hard work. His committee voted to sponsor a SGA advisor checklist, which will be coming up for first reading tonight. Larry's committee is also looking into the creation of a peer advising group.

Legislative Research Committee – Dwight's committee read a piece of legislation in regards to sprinkler systems in dorms. They looked over the by-laws and discussed the number of absences Congress members will be allowed to have.

Public Relations – Chairwoman Cole committee is continuing to work on many different projects. Some of the projects include bulletin boards, SGA newsletter, PR secretary, Homecoming, Halloween festivities, Pride Week and ideas for legislation.

Student Affairs – Tim's committee is working on doing a survey regarding weekends at Western. Also they are working on ideas for Pride Week as well as ways to improve student life over the weekends. Finally, his committee selected Amanda Kirby for vice-chair, pending congressional approval, and Natalie Bryant for secretary.

Campus Improvements – Chairwoman Hancock thanked her committee for the great attendance at their past meeting. She announced that her committee voted to sponsor two pieces of legislation for first reading; one in regards to installing lights at the Big Red Shuttle stops, and the other asking the University to repair Big Red Way. Her committee is also preparing for the campus clean up on Oct. 20th. They are also researching parking in the Normal Drive lot, and installation of phones outside of dorms for safety and convenience

Hillraisers – Sally wanted to thank everyone for their continued dedication to Hillraisers, and for all the work that several of her committee members are doing. She announced that there are now over 250 Hillraiser members which exceeds last years total. The committee is preparing for Saturday's game against New Haven. They are also preparing for Homecoming Week and Pride Week.

Academic Council Reports: Potter College, Jason Nemes – No Report
Ogden College, Mandy Coates – Mandy reported that the Ogden College ciriculum committee met this past week and discussed a proposal dealing with the Health Dept. She also made mention that she attended last nights meeting of University Blvd, but did not speak because she was there representing Spirit Masters.
Business College, Open – No Report
Education College, Open – No Report
Graduate College, Open – No Report

C.O.A: The next meeting will be next week on Oct 6th @ 3:30 in DUC 305.

Special Orders: The following new members were sworn in to Congress as at-large members: Scott Foster, and Rachel Carl.

Justice John Crowe presented the monthly report from Judicial Council. He reported that they are looking over the Homecoming Elections and preparing for those. The Justice also made mention that they will be having two attendance hearings next week at their meeting. He closed by announcing that the Judicial Council is meeting every other week at 4:30pm in DUC 305.

Nominations were taken for Congress member and Committee member of the month. The following Congress members have been nominated for the awards. For Congress member of the month those nominated were Sally Eilerman, Larry Murphy, Amanda Kirby, Jeff Baynham, and Dwight Campbell. Those nominated for Committee member of the month are Thomas Grinter, Sarah Kreicher, and Billy Lyons.

Unfinished Business: No unfinished business.

New Business: The Vice President of Administration Matt Bastin read the following pieces of legislation for first reading. Resolution 98-2-F Placing of Sprinklers in Dorm Halls, Resolution 98-3-F Placing of Handtowel dispensers in Thompson N. Wing, Bill 98-1-F SGA Advisor Checklist, and Bill 98-2-F Allocation of Funds to Murray State University Fire Relief Fund were all read for first reading.

Amanda Kirby was sworn in as the vice-chair for the Student Affairs committee.

Announcements: Sally Eilerman passed out to everyone the schedule for the Volleyball/Soccer teams. College Republicans will meet at 6:00 tonight in DUC 305. Young Democrats will meet on Wednesday at 8:30 in DUC. Christoph Miller needs to have a short meeting with committee heads following the meeting

Adjournments: William Jones moved to adjourn the meeting. Motion was seconded and approved unanimously. Meeting was adjourned at 5:45pm.

Respectfully submitted,

Matthew D. Bastin
VP of Administration, 1998-1999