Resolution 97-20-F
Recognizing Honors Graduates
November 11, 1997

- PURPOSE: For the University to recognize the graduates of the Western Kentucky University Honors Program during the graduation ceremony.
- WHEREAS: The course loads that are required are very demanding and require a great deal of dedication to complete, and
- WHEREAS: in order to graduate, Honor students must complete a year-long senior thesis to be submitted for approval by the Honors Program and the department in which the thesis was written, and
- WHEREAS: Honors students must maintain a relatively high grade point average in order to meet the requirements of the Honors Program, and
- WHEREAS: few Western students actually receive this distinguished honor, and
- WHEREAS: there is currently no recognition given to graduates of the Honors Program, and
- WHEREAS: recognition of these students would encourage greater participation in the Honors curriculum.
- THEREFORE: Be it resolved that we, the members of the Student Government Association, do hereby recommend that the University recognize the graduates of the Honors Program.
- AUTHORS: Brad Sweatt Stephanie Cosby
