RESOLUTION 90-17-S
CONCERNING HANDICAP ACCESSIBILITY
INTRODUCED APRIL 10, 1990

PURPOSE:

For the university to improve the accessibility of the campus and of its buildings for the physically handicapped.

STATUS:

WHEREAS,

Western Kentucky University has extremely poor handicap accessibility, and

WHEREAS,

The areas that have been outlined on the second page make up a small percentage of the areas that do not contain adequate handicap accessibility, and

WHEREAS,

The campus' handicap accessibility into buildings is extremely poor, and

WHEREAS,

Western does have students as well as campus' visitors (i.e. potential students and/or parents of potential students) that are physically handicapped, and

WHEREAS,

Special arrangements must be made for these students or visitors when dealing with going to class or going on a campus tour because they cannot take a normal route, and

WHEREAS,

Western does not seem to show much concern for the handicapped due to the lack of concern for previously improving handicap accessibility, and

WHEREAS,

The Architectural Barriers Act of 1968 states that "certain buildings financed with Federal funds are so designed and constructed as to be accessible to the physically handicapped," and

WHEREAS,

The Administer of General Services, in consultation with the Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare can prescribe standards for the design, construction and alteration of buildings to insure whenever possible that physically handicapped persons will have ready access to, and use of, campus buildings, and

WHEREAS,

The Secretary of Housing and Urban Development, in consultation with the Secretary of Health and Human Services, shall prescribe standards for the design, construction and alteration of buildings which are residential structures to insure that physically handicapped persons will have ready access to, and use of, such buildings.

THEREFORE:

Be it resolved that we, the members of the Associated Student Government of Western Kentucky University, do hereby ask the university to improve its accessibility of the campus and of the buildings to better aid the physically handicapped.

FURTHERMORE:

The Student Congress hereby formally invites President Meredith to take a tour of the campus in a wheelchair escorted by ASG President Amos Gott, the Executive Council and any other students that want to attend.
