RESOLUTION 93-5-S
ERADICATING ADVERTISEMENTS IN CLASSROOMS
Introduced: March 9, 1993

PURPOSE: To rid classrooms of distracting advertisements.

WHEREAS: The purpose of the classroom is to provide a distraction-free academic environment in which students may learn, and

WHEREAS: Advertisement is wisely strategized to draw attention to itself by various means, including the extensive use of flashy neon colors and impudent pictures, and

WHEREAS: Many students have expressed their annoyance with this on going solicitation and exploitation, and

WHEREAS: There are ample advertising opportunities outside of the classrooms, including bulletin boards in hallways, residence halls, and The College Heights Herald.

THEREFORE: Be it resolved that we the members of the Student Government Association do hereby request that the university establishes a policy to keep classrooms free from advertisements.
