

ASG MINUTES
of
April 29, 1982

CALL TO ORDER

The meeting of the Associated Student Government was call to order by President Margaret Ragan on April 29, 1982. The minutes were read and approved. Absences included: Greg Fields and Liz Gallrein.

President Margaret Ragan introduced the restructuring of committees which needed approval of Congress. A motion was made to have On-Campus, Off-Campus, Student Opinion Poll, Minority Affairs, and International Students committees under Student Affairs Committee. The motion was seconded and passed.

A motion was made to rename Communications Committee to Public Relations Committee. It was seconded and passed.

Treasurer Kelly Cook made a motion to add two amendments to the By-Laws concerning absences. The first new amendment shall read: Any student congress-member absent from more than three meetings of the student congress shall appear before the congress there to show cause why he or she should not be removed, following which the student congress shall vote whether or not to remove the student congressmember. Any student member who does not show cause at the first regularly scheduled meeting, after being contacted of the option, following the third absence is removed.

The second new amendment shall read: One unexcused absence from a committee meeting is equivalent to one unexcused absence from a congress meeting.

The motion to add these two amendments was seconded and passed.

APPOINTMENTS

Appointments were made to Congress. They included: On-Campus representatives: Jorge Garcia, Kelly Smith, Todd Cunningham, Theresa Hanks, and Tom Farmer; Off-Campus Representative: Dave Hoffman; Representatives-At-Large: Sammy Abell, Robert Cook, Laura Robb, Glen Sargent, Doug Ball, and Miriam Eberhardt; Potter College Alternate: Ed Jordan; College of Education Representative and Alternate: Brad Grot and Tim Eckardt; Graduate Representative: Melody Murphy; Business College Representative and Alternate: Susan Beth Tinsley and Barry Deweese; Ogden College Alternate: Gil Cowles.

All of the representatives were approved by Congress. The newly appointed representatives and representatives who were absent on Tuesday were sworn in by Judicial Council Chairperson Gail Williams.

President Margaret Ragan announced appointments of Committee Heads. They included; Student Affairs Committee: Jack Smith, chairperson, and Lonnie Sears, vice-chairperson; Public Relations Committee: Kerrie Stewart, chairperson, and Sammy Abell, vice-chairperson; Rules and Elections: Susan Albert, chairperson; Finance Committee: Kelly Cook, chairperson; KISL: Jorge Garcia, chairperson, and Dave Hoffman, vice-chairperson; Student-Faculty Relations: Claire Groenling, chairperson; Legislative Research Committee: Jack Smith, chairperson; Academic Affairs: Melanie Harding, chairperson.

A motion was made to approve these appointments. It was seconded and passed.

The appointment of a parliamentarian and alternate were introduced for approval. A motion was made to accept Brian Shaw as parliamentarian and Lonnie Sears as alternate. It was seconded and passed.

Congress also approved Robert Cook's appointment as Sergeant-At-Arms.

WORKSHOP

Secretary Susan Albert went over the Chart for Handling Motions.

President Margaret Ragan ranked the importance of the following:

- 1) Constitution
- 2) By-Laws
- 3) Robert's Rules of Order

She then went over the Officer Handbook and the duties of the representatives. Congress was given an additional sheet containing information about the Student Affairs Committee: It will consist of 14 voting members. Three of the voting members will be permanent. They are as follows: A United Black Student Representative, A Inter-Hall Council Representative, and a International Students Representative. The committee will be responsible for following the duties of Off-Campus, On-Campus, and Minority Affairs Committee as outlined in the Associated Student Government Officer Handbook. Further, it will be the responsibility of the Student Affairs Committee to take care of any problems or suggestions concerning policies geared toward student life at Western Kentucky University.

The Complaints and Suggestions Committee was dissolved and now each committee is responsible for responding to them and taking the proper action.

Administrative Vice-President Jack Smith went over how to write a resolution and the stages of a resolution.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Representative Dave Hoffman explained to Congress what KISL is. It is a student legislature which is a standing committee of ASG.

Doug Ball resigned as Representative-At-Large.

ADJOURNMENT

Tony Whalen made a motion to adjourn. It was seconded. Motion carried.

SA/sk

Respectfully submitted,