CALL TO ORDER

The January 16, 1990 meeting of the Associated Student Government was called to order by President Amos Gott. Absences included Steve Mason, David Pittman Brian Thornton and Dan Townsend.

APPROVAL OF MINUTES

The minutes were approved as read.

OFFICER REPORTS

President Amos Gott announced that there is a Regent's Reception next Thursday, from 12:30-1:30 at Garrett in room 100. He is looking for two people to speak against the legality of Marijuana. He will be meeting with Dr. Meredith and Dean Bailey next week and will be handing out the minutes from these meetings. Amos and Eugene Cline will be representing RHA and ASG on the committee dealing with the housing problem. He introduced David Pons, ASB President.

Administrative Vice-President Colvin welcomed everyone back and asked everyone to make the appropriate changes on the Congress address list. He gave a summary of Congress Survey. He also announced that there needs to be more attendance of ASG members at the Forums.

Public Relations Vice-President Hodge asked everyone to fill out the Challenge of Change and to adopt one goal for this semester. He will be working on the following events this semester: ASG Banquet, Adopt-A-Spot, promotion of student government elections, painting the ASG suggestion box and placing it upstairs, and a forum on the major concerts that come to Western. We will be eating at Murray's on January 23.

Secretary Fleming announced that she will have a complete list of all vacant offices next week.

Treasurer Smith will be handed a complete voucher summary at next week's meeting.
