Unfinished
Business:

Josh Detre brought Resolution 97-10-F "Applying Housing Scholarships to Off-Campus" up for revote after Executive Council vetoed it. Motion was made and approved to vote on this resolution. There was much discussion for this resolution as well as against it. The authors spoke in favor of the legislation and also offered research supporting it. The main argument was that if athletes can take their scholarships off campus, so should academic scholarship recipients. Several questions were asked of the authors including those from judicial council member Darlene Lodmell. Debate continued for 20 minutes and previous question was called. It was moved, seconded and approved to cease discussion. The motion was then made to vote on resolution 97-10-F. Motion was seconded and approved. Vote was casted by secret ballot. A total of 25 members were needed to vote in favor of the legislation in order for it to pass. The vote was 26 to 11 passing.

New Business: Resolution 98-1-S "Reallocating Fees as a Student Government Association/Programming Fee" was up for first Reading. Stephanie Cosby moved to suspend with the bylaws to vote on this piece of legislation so it could be brought up in the Board of Regents meeting on Friday. Motion was seconded and approved. President and author Keith Coffman explained the purpose of the resolution which would give money that the students are already paying in fees back to the students. This resolution will allow Student Government and UCB to provide more entertainment for the students and projects for the university. Questions were asked of the author and discussion ended. A motion was made to approve resolution 98-1-S. Motion was seconded and approved unanimously.

Announcements: Vice President Sears reminded everyone about the retreat January 30-31 at Barren River. Stephanie Cosby announced that she needed to meet with all committee heads following the meeting.

Adjournment: A motion was made to adjourn the meeting. Motion was seconded and approved unanimously. Meeting adjourned at 6:05 p.m.

Respectfully Submitted,

Jamie Fite
Secretary, 1997-1998
