ROLL CALL

Absences included Matt Ayers, Charles Carneal, Nichole Haynes, Chad Lewis, Jason Loehr, and Kristi Myers.

READING OF THE MINUTES

It was moved to suspend with the reading of the minutes. Motion passed.

OFFICER REPORTS

Tara Higdon, President--President Higdon passed about informational fliers from the Registrar's Office regarding the new Phone-in Registration. There is a press conference regarding this Tuesday, Oct. 17, at 9:00am if anyone would like to go. President Higdon announced that SGA will be co-sponsoring a Parliamentary Procedure Workshop with HOSA on October 21, at 9:00am in room 226 in DUC for anyone interested in effective meeting management. She also served at the Annual Staff Appreciation Cook-Out today, and the turnout was very good. President Higdon presented a survey that she compiled to help inform us of how students feel about campus issues. She requested that everyone take a few minutes and fill them out and return them after the meeting. Also, the people on Academic Council need to see her after the meeting. In closing, President Higdon told everyone to have a great Homecoming Week and to participate in the many activities that are offered.

Jeff Yan, Vice-President--Vice-President Yan announced that Child Care Grant applications are due Nov. 9, and can be picked up in the SGA office. Yan also encouraged everyone to attend WKU's Midnight Mania that will be held in Diddle the Saturday night of Homecoming.

Kristen Miller, Public Relations Director--Public Relations Director Miller passed out the fliers regarding the Parliamentary Procedure Workshop and encouraged everyone to take advantage of this opportunity. Also the PR committee is making banners for Midnight Mania recognizing both the men's and women's assistant coaches. SGA is also sponsoring a Student Leader Reception to be held at the Faculty House on Friday, Oct. 13, and Miller reminded everyone to come. She also mentioned that Rob Carouthers talked with the Ad Club and they are very interested in designing a new campaign for us.

Erin Schepman, Secretary--Secretary Schepman announced that there are open positions in the following Residence Halls: Bates-Runner, Florence-Schnieder, Gilbert, New Co-Ed, McLean, PFT, South, West, North, Central, Barnes-Campbell, and Bemis-Lawrence. There are also 6 Senior Off-Campus positions, Education and Graduate School Positions, as well as 3 Non-Traditional Positions.

Brandon Rucker, Treasurer--There were no expenditures for the past week. This leaves our account balance at $32, 153.15. Organizational Aid applications have been recieved; we have a total of 26 applicants. There will be a total of $4,500 given to the deserving organizations who have applied. Interviews have not yet been scheduled because the paperwork is still being processed. Rucker also reiterated the fact that members need to come to the Student Leader Reception on Friday. It is important that we have a good crowd.

COMMITTEE REPORTS

ACADEMIC AFFAIRS--Committee Chair David Apple reminded everyone that the new meeting time is Tuesdays at 5:30pm after the SGA meeting. The committee is still low on attendance and he encourages everyone to join.

STUDENT AFFAIRS--Student Affairs Chair Darlene Lodmell announced that there was not a meeting last week, but meetings will continue on schedule this week at the regular times.
