ROLL CALL Absences included Tara Higdon, Lance Blincoe, Brad Carneal, Margaret Carter, Kris Durbin, Angela Maier, and Andi Spears.

READING OF THE MINUTES It was moved to suspend with the reading of the minutes. Motion passed.

OFFICER REPORTS Tara Higdon, President -- President Higdon announced that people will be able to meet with the Vice-President for Academic Affairs candidate Barbara Burch, Dean of the School of Education and Human Development at California State University-Fresno on Feb. 15. The meeting will be at 4:30p.m. in DUC in room 226.

Jeff Yan, Vice-President--Vice-President Jeffery Yan announced that this week is "Healthy Loving Week," sponsored by the Student Health Services. There will be free HIV screenings at the health center all week. Also sponsored by the Student Health Services is Western's first talk show, "Crushes Revealed," which is on Valentine's Day at 8:00p.m. in TPH Auditorium. Yan also reminded everyone to meet with the candidates for Vice President of Academic Affairs on Thursday the 15th and Monday the 19th of February.

Kristen Miller, Director of Public Relations --Director of Public Relations Kristen Miller reported that Charbonne LaBelle would be unable to participate in the President for a Day Contest because The Herald sees it as a conflict of interest. Eva Farrar will be our new Winner for President for a Day, which will be Feb. 28. Miller congratulated Rob Carothers and Mike Swift for scoring the highest at last week's "Bowl for Kidsake." There are 10 contestants participating in SGA's Coming Home contest, which is Feb. 15, at 7:00p.m. at the Men's basketball game. Miller also announced that SGA will be starting a newsletter to send around campus to update
