Call to Order

The A.S.G. meeting of January 19, 1982 was called to order by President Dave Payne. Roll call was taken with absence of Diane Olson.

Officer Reports

Activities Vice-President Laura Simms announced the progress of the Speakers Bureau. She asked that Dave, Alesia, and Greg give a short, written summary of what their position entails by Friday.

Treasurer Greg Jennings read off a list of vouchers for the last two weeks.

Secretary Alesia Canafax announced that only one person was absent and that this was a record for this year.

President Dave Payne announced the acceptance of nominations for Administrative Vice-President. Nominations included Margaret Ragan and Doug Ball. The candidates gave their speeches and a secret ballot was taken. Our new vice-president is Margaret Ragan. There was a dispute over which law we were to go by, the Constitution, or the Roberts handbook, and the handbook was chosen.

Committee Reports

Student-faculty Relations chairman Doug Ball explained that cable vision could only put in one line for each television set in each dorm. He also announced a Student-faculty tea to be held in the middle of February.

Ad Hoc Reports

President Payne announced that he had met with Jody Richards, Bowling Green representative, who said that John Y. Brown may alleviate the fight in Kentucky legislature with placement appeasements to the smaller universities. He asked that everyone write one letter to send to legislatures to vote against the Bluegrass Plan.

KIST-Melody Murphy announced a meeting for all interested parties to go to Frankfurt. The meeting is on January 20, 1982 at 7:00 a.m. at College Center 349.

Announcements

Group by Acciesation-send a group to President Zacharias to keep him here.

Adjournment

A motion was made by James Brumfield to adjourn. The motion was seconded.

Respectfully submitted,

Alesia Canafax
Secretary
