Resolution 86-24-S

Purchasing of Box Springs for Pearce-Ford Tower

Introduced 4-01-86

PURPOSE: For the University to purchase box springs for Pearce-Ford Tower for the comfort of the student body that live there.

STATUS:

WHEREAS, Pearce-Ford Tower opened its door to the students of Western Kentucky University in 1971, and

WHEREAS, Every residence hall on the campus of Western Kentucky University except Pearce-Ford Tower has box springs or double mattresses for each individual resident, and

WHEREAS, Residents of Pearce-Ford Tower pay the same amount as the residents of other air-conditioned residence halls, and

WHEREAS, On November 13, 1984 concerned members of Congress introduced 84-24-F, dealing with the same problem, and

WHEREAS, Inter-Hall has addressed this problem, and

WHEREAS, The lack of comfort for the residents in Pearce-Ford Tower should be taken seriously, and

THEREFORE, Be it resolved that we, the Associated Student Government, recognize the concerns and complaints of the student body and do hereby respectfully petition that the University rectify this situation with all deliberate speed.
