Resolution 89-11-F
Repeating of classes without penalty
Introduced 12-5-89

PURPOSE: For the university to allow undergraduates to repeat any classes in their degree program in which they have received a B or lower in before they graduate without penalty on their academic record.

STATUS:

WHEREAS, Students should be allowed to repeat classed if they wish, and

WHEREAS, Students striving to have a 4.0 and fail to by one or more classes may elect to retake a class in which they received less than an A, and

WHEREAS, Students wishing to improve their academic record may be afforded the opportunity to do so, and

WHEREAS, College is a learning experience and this policy change could influence students to take a broader range of classes offered at WKU, and

WHEREAS, According to Kentucky Council on Higher Education policy manual, "the continuing task for higher education is to seek the optimum balance--A balance between needs for centers of humanism and enlightenment and needs for job training, a task that is complicated by shifting enrollments and decreasing revenues." and

WHEREAS, Western should seek to provide intellectual and cultural opportunities which will develop habits of scholarship and intellectual curiosity, and

WHEREAS, The purpose of the ASG is to further the interest and provide for the general welfare of the student body

THEREFORE, We, the members of the ASG being duly elected representatives of the student body, urge the university to adopt this new policy and allow undergraduates who have earned a B average or less in their degree program to retake these classes through appropriate manners without penalties on their academic records
