RESOLUTION 94-20-F

Discontinuing Undergraduate Student Teaching Assistants Participation in Grading Process

November 22, 1994

PURPOSE: For the university to disallow the use of undergraduate student teaching assistants to grade assignments turned in by students or to proctor student exams.

WHEREAS: These students are not fully qualified to assign grades to other undergraduate students, and

WHEREAS: The legitimacy of the grades given by undergraduate assistants is questionable, and

WHEREAS: The student assistants are unable to answer any questions that the students may have while they are proctoring exams, and

WHEREAS: These assistants do not always try to prevent students from cheating while proctoring exams.

THEREFORE: Be it resolved that we the members of the Student Government Association do hereby recommend that the university disallow the use of undergraduate student teaching assistants to grade assignments turned in by students or to proctor student exams.
