Resolution 02-2-S

Inquiry of Freshman Seminar

February 12, 2002

PURPOSE: The Student Government Association of Western Kentucky University request an inquiry to the effectiveness of the current UC101 Freshman Seminar classes.

WHEREAS: The current purpose of the Freshman Seminar course is to develop academic skills and foster personal development, and

WHEREAS: An inquiry into the current UC101 course will insure that the original goals of the course are met, and

WHEREAS: Based on a recent poll of students, the current Freshman Seminar course does little to prepare incoming students for life on and within the campus of Western Kentucky University, and

WHEREAS: Upon receipt of this resolution, the Department of Academic Affairs shall interpret this resolution as a request to execute a comprehensive inquiry of all UC101 classes, and

WHEREAS: The Student Government Association also requests of the Department of Academic Affairs that a copy of the report to be submitted to the Student Government Association Academic Affairs Committee by April 11, 2002.

THEREFORE: Be it resolved that the Student Government Association of Western Kentucky University request an inquiry into the effectiveness of the UC101 course.
