RESOLUTION 94-11-F

Examination prior to end of "W" period
November 1, 1994

PURPOSE: For the University to establish a University policy for instructors to provide students with some type of grade prior to the end of the "W" period.

WHEREAS: Withdrawal periods allow students to officially withdraw from courses with a grade of "W" which does not affect his or her cumulative GPA, and

WHEREAS: Examination performance can predict the successfulness in a course, and

WHEREAS: Many instructors do not provide students with an examination prior to the end of the "W" period.

THEREFORE: Be it resolved that we the members of the Student Government Association request that Western Kentucky University establish a University policy for instructors to provide students with some type of examination prior to the end of the "W" period.
