SPONSOR: Legislative Research Committee

Amendment

Article VI, Section 3.1 shall now read as follows:

“All proposed pieces of legislation shall be sponsored by standing/special committees or the executive cabinet and shall be referred to the Legislative Research Committee after the first reading before Congress, with the author, or designated representative in attendance, pursuant to Article V, Section 2 of the SGA Constitution, as amended, and the person(s) so designated shall be well-versed on the legislation that is up for review.” This shall not be construed to supersede Article 8, Section 6 of the bylaws.
