Resolution02-1-S
Supremacy Clause
January 29, 2002

PURPOSE: To amend the Constitution of the Student Government Association to make the constitution the supreme document of the organization.

WHEREAS: The current constitution of the Student Government Association does not contain a supremacy clause, and

WHEREAS: Inclusion of a supremacy clause would resolve any conflicts between the Constitution, the by-laws, and any other relevant issues that may arise, and

WHEREAS: Inclusion of a Supremacy Clause will establish the Constitution as the supreme governing document of the Student Government Association, and

WHEREAS: Inclusion of a Supremacy Clause will encourage SGA members to be more knowledgeable about the Constitution.

THEREFORE: Therefore be it resolved that we, the members of the Student Government Association of Western Kentucky University, do hereby amend the Constitution of SGA to include a Supremacy Clause which shall read as follows:

This Constitution shall be the supreme law of the Student Government Association and all policies, pronouncements, rulings, and enactments of the Association shall be subordinate to it, subject to the United States Constitution, the Kentucky State Constitution, federal, state, and local laws. All branches of the Student Government Association are responsible to and for the student body as provided for by this Constitution. The responsibility of all congress members, executive
