Officer Reports: President, Keith Coffman President Coffman announced that the University needed several different students to serve on complaint committees. If anyone is interested in serving on one of these committees, please see him after the meeting. Next, he reported that the College of Business will be hosting a Job Fair at the Institute for Economic Development tomorrow Nov 19. Finally, President Coffman announced that University Center Board was trying to get Jamie Foxx to perform next semester. The total cost for his performance will total $32,000 and UCB is asking that any organization wishing to co-sponsor the show contribute $1000. He asked, as UCB Special Events Chair, that SGA sponsor the performance.

Vice President, Leigh Ann Sears Vice President Sears reported that 52 people rode Provide-a-Ride last Thursday night; please continue to promote this program. She congratulated Congress on all of the legislation that was up for second and first reading and thanked everyone for doing such a great job this semester. She reminded everyone that there will be no meeting next week Nov. 25. She passed around a petition that the coordinator of the "People's Park" project brought to her. Sign if you are in favor of the project.

Director of Public Relations, Heather Rogers PR Dir. Rogers thanked the American Red Cross Representative for speaking before the meeting. She encouraged Congress to help promote the blood drive on December 3 from 10 a.m. - 4 p.m. in West Hall Cellar. Student Government is a sponsor so please pass out the flyers promoting it. She then thanked Laura Hancock and Jason Hyde for helping with the high school leadership conference on Nov. 14 and thanked everyone who wore their SGA shirts to the meeting. PR Dir. Rogers asked that all committees set at least three main goals for next semester and how they can accomplish them. Once those goals have been turned into her, she will place those on lists around the office. She reminded everyone that dates for the campus calendar and drawings for the mural competition needed to be into her ASAP. She closed by wishing everyone a safe and happy Thanksgiving Break.

Jamie Fite, Secretary Secretary Fite asked those Congress members who are attending the Banquet on December 2 to please sign their names to the sheets being passed around the room. Next, she read the list of open positions which included: Graduate College, Education College, Non-Traditional, Sophomore Off-Campus, Junior Off-Campus, Senior Off-Campus, Barnes Campbell, Bemis Lawrence, New Sorority, South Hall and Freshman Council. She asked that
