RESOLUTION 93-5-F

RETAKING COURSES

Introduced: October 19, 1993

- PURPOSE: To allow Western Kentucky University Students to retake a class in which they receive a grade of C or below.
- WHEREAS: A higher grade point average would make Western graduates more attractive to graduate and professional schools, and
- WHEREAS: The current job market has become very competitive, requiring higher grade point averages for job applicants, and
- WHEREAS: It is in the students best interest to achieve the highest possible level of academic excellence, and
- WHEREAS: Western Kentucky University would benefit economically from students retaking classes, and
- WHEREAS: All students should have the right and prerogative to retake courses if they are willing to bear the costs in both time and money.
- THEREFORE: Be it resolved that we, the members of the Student Government Association request that students be allowed to retake for credit a course in which they receive a grade of C or below. There should be a limit of fifteen hours that can be retaken for credit in which a grade of C was earned.
- AUTHORS: Andrea Cailles, Julie Davis, Lena Sweeten-Garner, and William Zorn
