Resolution 86-13-S
Commendation of President
Introduced 3-04-86

PURPOSE: To commend Mitchell S. McKinney, President of Associated Student Government.

STATUS:

PASSED

WHEREAS, The Office of the President of the Associated Student Government is one of great responsibility, involving a large expenditure of time and energy, and

WHEREAS, Mitchell S. McKinney has executed the duties of the Office of President of the Associated Student Government with the utmost skill and enthusiasm regardless of the time, trouble, or consequences involved, and

WHEREAS, Sometimes we, the members of the Associated Student Government, don't see all the work Mitchell S. McKinney does, but the results are evident, and

WHEREAS, Mitchell S. McKinney has done an excellent job with administration relationships with the Associated Student Government this year, and

WHEREAS, He has represented both the student body and the University with the highest standards and pride,

THEREFORE, Be it resolved that we, the Associated Student Government, commend and thank President Mitchell S. McKinney for his tireless efforts as Student Body President, his constant pursuit of excellence in student government, and the conscientious, dedicated, sincere manner in which he has handled the office of Associated Student Government.
