Habitat for Humanity

Greg Mills and Bryan Raeka spoke for Habitat for Humanity. Habitat is a non-profit housing organization. It is a hand-up not a hand-out. The houses are built for and with people that cannot afford monthly payments in over a hundred countries. There are 591 college groups. We help the Residence Hall Association with Shantytown and participate in the homecoming parade. This is Western's Centennial year. Our chapter was nationally recognized and wants to be the best chapter in the world. The Birthday Build House is being built exclusively by Western Kentucky University students. As of today, we have raised $15,000. We have talked to Greeks and housing, and we need everybody's assistance and people to sponsor spots of the house. These will be permanent parts of the house. On September 30th, we will wreck the walls on South Lawn and assemble the house for all to see. The Daily News will be there. The house will be moved to South Main Street and finished there. We have three students from the construction management department. Take this to your personal organizations; this is a complete WKU event. $50,000 is a huge sum of money and we need to get the word out. Contact us; we can help you get involved. We collect aluminum cans because no one else on campus does. Fantastic education at WKU, I have three daughters and they all went to WKU. My youngest is a senior this year. Go beyond the classrooms and get involved. Get your name on one of the pieces of the house. Just $5-10 from everyone and we can get the $50,000.

Up 'til Dawn

Kathleen Hennessey spoke regarding the fundraiser lead each year by the students. St. Jude's Hospital in Memphis, Tennessee needs help. They don't reject anyone. If a family can't pay for their child's medical bills, then St. Jude's will take them in. We are trying to get more than Greeks involved. It would be great if the government body of the students got involved. There is a $75 fee to enter a team. Each person on the team must write ten letters. We supply the template and the letters for the campaign. The Letter Writing Campaign is October 11th, at RedZone with free food. There will be a speaker, whose son went to St. Jude's. SGA has an alumni list that could be receive letters. Alumni could donate 5 to 10 to 100 dollars. The blow-out event is February 16 and 17th all night at Preston Center. I strongly encourage placing a team. Look for other posters and stuff about campus. I am in the SGA office everyday from 12:30 to 5:30 pm.

Campus Activities Board (CAB)

Kristina Dyer introduced herself, and announced that she will be sitting in on the SGA meetings this semester for CAB. Tomorrow there are two independent films for a dollar at 7:00 pm. Dierks Bentley is coming; tickets go on sell September 17th. Kate Clinton will be in VanMeter Auditorium on Tuesday. Pedro from Napoleon Dynamite will speak at DUC at 7:00 pm the DJ afterwards on September 20th.

Unfinished Business

SGA 2006-2007 Budget

Amanda Allen was recognized as the author and explained that this year's budget is more money conscious. It is the third sheet that we are voting on in the packets. The difference in the two budgets is shown at the bottom. We have $30,000 for Organizational Aid. We cut the summer retreat and put it into the miscellaneous fund. We also removed the telephone and put it in better places to be used. SGA 2006-2007 Budget passed with unanimous consent.

Fall Election Codes

Rob Watkins spoke on this legislation. He said the election codes are the same as always, he just changed the dates accordingly. Fall Election Codes passes with unanimous consent.
